

Nautilus Survey Gauges Views on Mariner Criminalization

The Nautilus Federation is urging members to take part in a special survey put together to highlight the continued threat that criminalization presents to the maritime industry. Mariners concerned about their rights during incidents at sea are being urged to take part in the survey concerning their experiences of fair treatment.

You can access the survey at www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/FairTreat18

M.E.B.A. is an affiliate of Nautilus which represents international mariners and shipping professionals with the objective of spotlighting officer issues such as criminalization.

Sadly, seafarers remain at high risk of being treated as scapegoats after accidents at sea. The results of the survey will be used to help look at new ways to support members when they face issues by providing access to support and guidance when they need it most, wherever they are in the world.

Need Help?

Been involved in a maritime incident?
Need urgent legal advice & assistance?

Members can get help through the Joint Assistance and Support Network (JASON).

Click on the links for guidance on fair treatment and how to contact JASON.

The survey is part of a campaign that is also promoting awareness of the Nautilus Federation's Joint Assistance & Support Network (JASON) which aims to safeguard members' rights to fair treatment after accidents.

For more on JASON visit: <https://nautilusfederation.org/policy/jason/>

The Nautilus Federation's website is located at: <https://nautilusfederation.org/>